Yearbook Dedicatee

This years dedicatee is Mrs. McLaws. She grew up on the family farm outside of Alva, Oklahoma and attended high school in Capron, Oklahoma. She played basketball, belonged to choir, Glee Club, Pep Club, Annual Staff, was the FFA Sweetheart, and was also a cheerleader. She was one of only 17 students in the graduating class of 1966. Mrs. McLaws attended Northwestern College in Alva, Oklahoma. To pay for college she worked at the nursing home and also broke horses.

In 1973 she started teaching PE and Health at WHS and has been involved with many school and non-school activities in our community. Mrs. McLaws coached gymnastics at WHS for six years taking state in 1979, volleyball for 30 plus years winning state in 1983. She was also sponsor of cheer, pom, and pep squad. She also taught Drivers' Ed for twenty years. You can see Mrs. McLaws running the clock at all the varsity basketball games with her side kick Mr. Griffith, she has been doing this for 30 plus years.

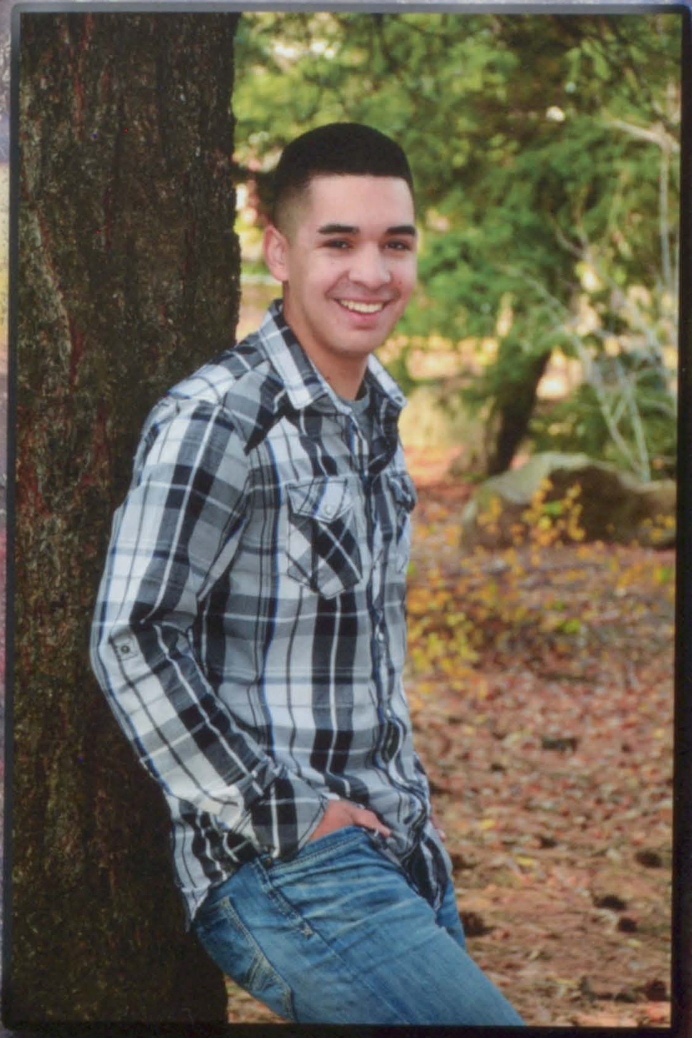

She loves horses and Rodeo and has Hazed for local and professional Bull Doggers. Drag Racing is also a passion of hers and she works in the pits helping her husband wrench on their Top Alcohol Funny Car. Mrs. McLaws is truly a women of many talents and puts her heart and soul in to everything she does, at WHS, and with her family and friends.

Mrs. McLaws

COURTNEY
WINSLOW BULLDOGS

Dedicatee: Prescott Winslow

He was known by young locals as "Mr. Winslow", by adults as "Prescott" or "Pres", and by his loving family as simply "Uncle Pres". He was born and raised on the East Coast, lived and worked there and in Seattle for many years. He spent the final decade of his life here in Winslow, Arizona.

He had many jobs in his 72 years of life, but the jobs he liked best were the ones in Winslow for which he received no pay. He was a tutor and a mentor to young people from elementary through high school. He was a teacher's assistant who supported educators in whatever way he could, even if it meant relearning elementary schoolwork or devising new methods to engage and connect with students.

He helped students realize that, with effort, they could succeed in school and consider higher education after high school graduation. He took as much pleasure in helping junior high students with understanding math, as he did helping older students gain valuable scholarships to four-year institutions after graduation.

While accomplishing all of this, Pres was glad to live a simple life in a modest studio apartment, driving a 40 year-old car, using air conditioning only when Winslow became unbearably hot and doggedly saving anything that could be reused so he could drive it to Flagstaff for recycling. To say that Pres was humble would be an understatement.

Whether we remember him as Mr. Winslow, Prescott, or Pres, he was a unique individual. We wish he had lived much longer so that he could carry on the volunteer work that he loved so much. But we are very grateful for the 10 years that we had him here in Winslow, and he will forever be part of our community.

Dedicatee Mrs. Heister

Mrs. Renell Heister graduated from Trevor Browne High School in 1979, and earned bachelor degrees in English and Education from Grand Canyon College in 1987. Soon after graduation she began teaching English at Peoria High School in Peoria, Arizona. In 1991, Mrs. Heister, along with her husband, Lance, and her young family of three children, moved to Heber, Arizona after Mrs. Heister accepted an English teaching position at Mogollon High School; in addition to teaching at Mogollon High School, Mrs. Heister began coaching volleyball there, and she continued coaching for 15 years. All totaled, Mrs. Heister was a teacher, coach, and finally, as an educational counselor, at Mogollon High School from 1991 to 2009.

In the fall of 2009, Mrs. Heister moved here to Winslow, where she served as the lead counselor at Winslow High from 2009 to 2016. Mrs. Heister has recently taken a job as a grant coordinator at Northland Pioneer College that assists local high schools in the delivery of dual enrollment college classes that take place on high school campuses during the regular school day.

Mrs. Heister was named the Arizona Teacher of the Year by the Arizona Rural Schools Association in 2002. In 2014, Mrs. Heister led the Winslow High School Counseling office in receiving the very exclusive national recognition as an American School Counseling Association Model Counseling Program.

Along with Mrs. Liz McLaws, Mrs. Heister has coached the Winslow High varsity volleyball team for the past two years. Mrs. Heister now enjoys five grandchildren, all of whom reside in and around Phoenix along with her three children.

BUSINESS AND SENIOR ADS

Dear Too-Tee aka Tie-Tie,

Wow 18 Years gone. In case you didn't know you are my "Hero", so smart, so strong, and beautiful too! You amaze us all of the time. Without you I wouldn't be here today.

Thank you for being my daughter. Through all of the struggles, look who you have become. You are the most awesome person I know!

You are the best sis! May God Bless you always!

I Love You,

Mom

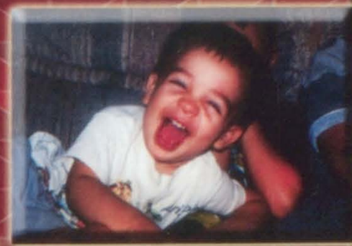

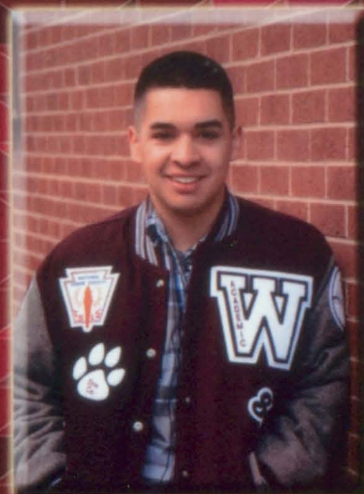

On June 8th, 1999 we were blessed with an amazing gift from God... and here we are almost 18 years later getting ready to watch you graduate! We can't believe this day has come... it is definitely a bittersweet moment for us. Cooper, words cannot describe how incredibly proud we are of the young man you have become. Over the years it has been a joy to see you grow into the strong, independent, caring person you are today. Even though the road hasn't always been smooth along the way, you always managed to find the strength to achieve your goals, no matter what was thrown at you! Your commitment to stay true to yourself at all times is an inspiration to the rest of us! We are honored to be apart of your life and cannot wait to see the great things that you will accomplish as you begin the next chapter in your life. To be called to Serve and Protect is an enormous task to fulfill, however we have no doubt that you will do this with the highest amount of pride, honor, dignity, and respect... because these are qualities that you already possess! We pray that God bless you, protect you, and is with you every step of the way. We love you more than you'll ever know Coop! Congratulations on your 2017 Winslow High School Graduation!

Love... Mom, Dad, and Parker

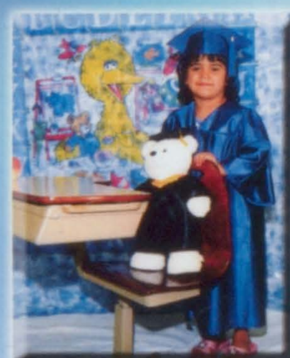

Shaleah DeWitt, You are truly one of the best-unexpected surprises we have ever received! We are grateful for you and the blessings you are to us every-day. We love you. Your quick wittedness, always keeps us laughing. You have grown up toooo fast! You are a smart, talented, and beautiful young woman. You have so many talents and always amaze us. You see something and do it and you never worry about failing. We know that you will continue to succeed and do well in all that is ahead of you in life. Love Your Family!

Leticia Ann,

Our beautiful princess. Words can't even express how proud we are of you! You are truly a beautiful girl with a beautiful soul. God has truly blessed us when he gave you to us. You have worked so hard to accomplish your graduation goals. You can do anything you want in life. Reach for your dreams and shoot for the stars. You can do anything your heart desires. Congrats Baby girl. We love you more than you will ever know.

Love Mom, Dad & all the kids

Zach and Quincy,

Be strong in the Lord.
Never give up hope!
You're going to do great things!
We already know.
God's got His hand on you.
Don't live life in fear.
Forgive and Forget,
but don't forget why you're here.
Take your time to pray.

We love you and could not be prouder.

Emily Grace Kloor

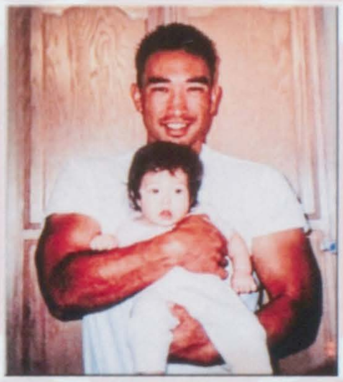

Eepa, I'm so proud of you! I know you can and will do great things in this world. Don't let anyone put you down or tell you that you can't do it. Graduating is just the beginning; there is a whole WORLD to discover! Fear and uncertainty will come, but so will accomplishment, joy and experiencing new and amazing things! Power through any negativity and it will pay off for you! Follow whatever dreams you may have because nothing is impossible, especiallly when you have God on your side. I love you lil sis, and I can't believe you're old now! Jeez, stop growing already! I wish you all the blessings of the world and know that i'm always here for you. <3
Love, Your Big Sis... P.S. Be smart with your money! :)

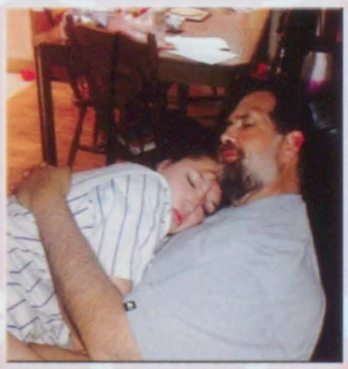

Emma Grace, your name alone depicts your character. Elegance, loveliness, beauty, and favored by God. As you start to become more independent, free from teacher andparental control it is time to let your light shine. All these years you have practiced, preparing for the rest of your life. As we take the training wheels off, know that those around you are still there to help you get over bumpy roads. Therefore, do not be afraid to take the path less traveled, because you are ready for the challenge, you have proven to be ready. I congradulate you, my daughter not just for graduating high school, but for conquering a step in life that will point

I am the proudest I have ever been, knowing that you're my daughter. My pride doesn't just come from your grades or your amazing work ethic that has driven you to achieve all of your goals. No, I am truly inspired and proud of the way you give so selflessly to everyone who knows you and your devotion to everything and everyone you love. I rarely see you in a bad mood, but I have often seen you bring others out of theirs'. In short, that is true character, and that is one thing that cannot be bought but this is beyond vale. You have filled my heart with a love that I didn't know existed before I held you in my arms for the first time. Soon you will be done with high school and I know you are going to bless that rest ofthe world, the way you have blessed mine. I love you will all my heart, my Bean. -Dad

Continue to shine bright, my love. I am treasuring the past and looking forward to your future. Always remember to "trust in the Lord with ALL your heart. In ALL your ways acknowledge him and he will make your path straight". I treasure every moment I get with you. Congratulatons on your graduation, Nini

Travis,

Where has the time gone? How did we get to this moment in time? It feels like just yesterday, the doctor handed you to us, and we were welcoming you into the world, and here we are preparing to send you off in it!!

We are so extremely proud of the man that you are becoming! We admire your ambition and know that you will do all that you set your mind to. Continue to aim high and reach higher than the stars!

* The world is at your fingertips, you just haft to want it! In the famous words of Dr. Seuss, "Oh the places you will go!" You have the ability to be anything you want to be, GO AFTER IT!!

Some very important things for you to always remember:

Always stay humble, remember to be small!! Always stay kind, your heart is so big - love much with it! Always keep God at the center of your life. Remember if you ever find yourself feeling lonely, you are never alone, because He is always with you!

"Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or terrified because of them, for the Lord your God goes with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you." ~Deuteronomy 31:6

Also, turn to Him in everything, let Him guide you along the way. "Pray without ceasing." ~1 Thessalonians 5:17

He is who will provide your strength when all feels like it is going haywire.

"For I can do all things through Christ, who gives me strength." ~Philippians 4:13

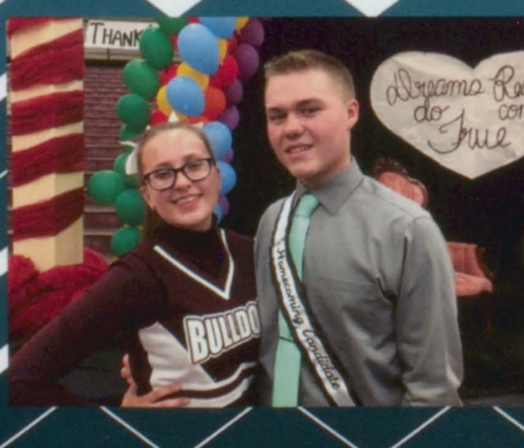

Always trust Gods lead and His plan for"your life. "For I know the plans I have for you," Says the Lord. "They are plans for good and not for disaster, but to give you a future and a hope." `Jeremiah 29:11

"May the Lord bless you and protect you. May He make His face shine upon you; and be gracious to you; may the Lord turn His face toward you and give you peace."
~Numbers 6:24-26

John Travis Lee ~ we are so proud of you and love you to infinity and beyond!!

Love,
Dad, Mom, Jessie, Sis, & Emmett J.
P.S. Dad says: "Be respectful, make good choices, and ALWAYS do your best!"

"I live my life a quarter mile at a time." -Dom Toretto

A Word From The Editors

As both of our senior years are coming to an end, we would like to take this moment to thank everyone who put their hard work and effort into this year's "Winslow High School Meteor." Being chosen as editor, and vice editor was such an honor. As we worked hard throughout the year, to make sure everything flowed together, as well as looked stunning, we realized that in no way were we doing this for ourselves. In all reality, as editors, we were doing it for our friends, families, and teachers. Each and every year, the yearbook seems to be a very tough task, and this year was no exception to that. As always, there was a massive amount of work that was put into this amazing book that holds memories that are to be cherished for the rest of our days. From the first day both of us stepped into Mrs. Long's Graphic Deign Class, to the final few days of editing our senior yearbook, our time in here has been special. We have learned life skills that we can hold with us for the rest of our lives. This Meteor is something that all students of Winslow High School can look upon to remember the "Golden Days," and something to reminisce on when one might be having a bad day. As with this yearbook, we are finished, and we are proud to have spent our last year at Winslow High School in such an amazing environment working on the Yearbook with all of our Yearbook Crew!
